

LACN 2012

MEMBER & SERVICES DIRECTORY

The LACN MEMBER & SERVICES DIRECTORY is published on the LACN Website and updated continually throughout the year, replacing the previous printed version. The PDF format of the directory allows members to download the directory for a printed version or refer to it online.

Having the directory online at the "Members Only" section of the website makes it possible for more than 1,000 individuals in the more than 360 LACN member firms to access the directory.

The new electronic directory will include all features of previous publications including all LACN members firms, contact information and key personnel. The directory also includes an alphabetical listing of all products and services with the names of the member firms who provide them.

Also included are listings of LACN officers and directors, Associate Council leadership, Second Growth leadership, staff and other industry contact information.
