

2nd Growth Mill Tour, OREGON

May 21-22-23, 2017

Eugene. Springfield. Monroe. Roseburg. Riddle.

WCLBMA's 2nd Growth, those primarily under the age of 40 who are active in the lumber and building materials industry, is hosting their Mill Tour May 21-22-23, starting in Eugene, OR! Please note, all WCLBMA members and their customers are invited to attend this educational tour to learn more about our industry.

Agenda: Plan on arriving Sunday in Eugene. The mill tour will start off early Monday morning, May 22nd, with our tour bus departing the Valley River Inn in Eugene at 8:00 a.m. sharp!

Monday's tour will begin with an early group breakfast at the hotel. Attendees will load up with their gear and head to Rosboro to tour their Glulam, Engineered Wood, and Timber Products facilities. After Rosboro, we will head over to Hull-Oakes Lumber Company to see what may be the last steam-powered commercial saw mill in the country, one of the few mills capable of cutting large timbers up to 85 ft. long. On Tuesday we will tour Douglas County Forest Products, DR Johnson Lumber, and Herbert Lumber Co. We will return late Tuesday afternoon/early evening back to Valley River Inn in Eugene.

Travel: Attendees will be responsible for their own airline reservations. Please be sure to email jeanh@lumberassociation.org or fax: 916-235-7496 attn: Jean, a copy of your itinerary once you have booked your airfare. You will need to contact the Valley River Inn, 541-743-1000, to book your complimentary shuttle ride from the airport to the hotel.

Cost: $900.00 per WCLBMA member attendee which includes meals, transportation, and three night's stay, 2 nights at Valley River Inn, Eugene (5/21 & 5/23) and one night at Holiday Inn Express, Roseburg (5/22).
